

3rd Passau ECON Workshop

14/15 November 2024

Achat Hotel Waldkirchen, Hauzenberger Straße 48, 94065 Waldkirchen

Thursday, 14th November 2024
09:30 - 09:45	Johann Graf Lambsdorff	Welcome
09:45 - 10:30	Gremary Aza Mengoa	Contractual Design for Biogas Substrate Supply: A Discrete Choice Experiment with Coffee Farmers in Costa Rica
Short Coffee break
10:45 - 11:30	Udit Sawhney	My opinion your opinion - do group perceptions prevent the adoption of sustainable farming practices
11:30 - 12:15	Deborah Voß	Nature rights to promote sustainability: A question of voice or compensation for ecosystems?
Lunch & Little Hike
15:30 – 16:15	Katharina Drescher	Does school social work work? Evidence from crime and education
16:15 – 17:00	Nicolas Dietl	Wealth of nations vs. their social identities: Ricardian comparative advantage and the erosion of social cohesion
Coffee break
17:30 – 18:15	Lucero Carballo Madrigal	Foreign interventions and women's agency in Afghanistan
18:15 – 19:00	Dominik Ulke & Florian Irmischer	Between non-best response and limited reasoning – Experimental evidence on inertia using process data
Dinner
After dinner	Michael Grimm	Informal workshop: “How to write and respond to a Referee Report”

Friday, 15th November 2024
09:00 – 09:45	Mengxi Wang	Subsidizing public charging infrastructure and the adoption of electric vehicles: Evidence from Germany
09:45 – 10:30	Stephan Geschwind	Does scarcity induce hostility? An experimental investigation in a common-pool resource game with asymmetry
Coffee break
11:00 – 11:45	Irene Furlani	Connect to protect: How mobile connectivity affects contraception use in India
11:45 – 12:30	Nymphary Daphne Santiago	Is local always more sustainable? Consumer perception and valuation of peat alternatives
Wrap-Up - no Lunch		