

Bachelorseminar MPI

Title of module / classification	Seminar on management, human resources, and information
Name of professor	Prof. Dr. Marina Fiedler
Frequency of module availability / duration of module	Every summer semester, additional seminars during winter semester if necessary (more information can be found on the chair homepage) 1 semester
Module content	Topics of this seminar are current issues in management, human resources, and information research Further information on the seminar will be available on the StudIP platform at the start of the lecture.
Skills the module seeks to convey	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Becoming acquainted with scientific work and the demands of conducting and writing up research projects • Developing an in-depth understanding for individual issues in management, human resources, and information research • Preparation for a bachelor thesis
Teaching and studying methods	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discussion and joint development of seminar contents • Individual participant presentations of seminar results
Prerequisites	Concerning other degree courses, entry requirements are applied with reference to the corresponding study and examination regulations (StuPO). The module should be completed during the second half of the bachelor course of study. Participants who complete this module successfully (final grade of 2.3 or better) are eligible for applying for a bachelor thesis at the chair of management, human resources, and information.
Purpose of the module within its area as well as for other modules and areas of study	It is suitable for all courses of study which seek to offer students programmes in this field.
Composition of the workload:
Types of instruction:		Hours/ week	LP / ECTS
Lecture		2
Total		2

Composition of the workload (in hours of 60 minutes, for 15 weeks per semester, i.e. 14 weeks of lectures and one week of final exams)
	In-class time	Revision and study time
Lecture	30	180
Type of exam/ requirements for being awarded credit points		Seminar thesis paper including theoretical and empirical parts (3200 words) Presentation of results
Weight of individual performance in the overall grade		Seminar thesis paper: 70% Presentation of results: 30%
Special activities (e.g. online part, excursions, guest lectures etc.)
Recommended reading (text books, study guides, literature)		Information on recommended readings will be given in class and in the class documents available on the StudIP platform.
Contact Person		Dr. Stephen Jeffrey (Stephen.Jeffrey@uni-passau.de)