

RESEARCH ASSISTANT (W/M/D) 70 % & PhD Position

23.03.2022

EBS Universität für Wirtschaft und Recht is one of the leading private, state-recognized universities with campuses in Oestrich-Winkel and Wiesbaden, Germany. Currently, EBS hosts 2,200 students and doctoral candidates at the EBS Business School, EBS Law School and EBS Executive School. EBS' more than 300 employees aim to develop responsible and conscientious decision-makers and support students in their personal development. EBS nurtures excellence in research and teaching, has a strong stakeholder network and emphasizes its international focus. Through professional training programs EBS aims to provide life-long learning for students, executives and management specialists.

We belong to the SRH Group, a leading private provider of educational and health-care services with more than 16,000 employees. SRH runs private universities, vocational training centers, schools, and hospitals all over Germany.

As of July 1, 2022 or by agreement, we are looking for a

Research Assistant (f/m/d) in part-time (70%)

to strengthen the team at the Chair of Strategic and International Management of Prof. Dr. Markus Kreutzer at our location in Oestrich-Winkel. The position is 70% (27.65h / week) and is initially limited to 2 years (with the option for a contract extension).

The chair is part of the Management Group (<https://www.ebs.edu/en/group/management>) at EBS Business School, which is research-oriented and internationally focused. The position as research assistant offers the opportunity to pursue a doctoral degree, with the doctoral supervisor being Markus Kreutzer, provided that the admission requirements of EBS Business School are met (<https://www.ebs.edu/en/study-course/doctoral-studies-business-administration>).

Your tasks:

- ‡ Collaborate on empirical research and practice projects in the field of strategic management and organizational research
- ‡ Preparation and supervision of courses as well as student bachelor's and master's theses
- ‡ Writing of scientific and practice-oriented publications

Your profile:

- ‡ A good to very good Master's degree in business/management or a related field
- ‡ Strong interest in pursuing a doctorate on strategic alliances/ecosystems or on control in 21st century organizations
- ‡ Very good command of English
- ‡ Comfortable working with data
- ‡ Self-initiative, ability to work in a team, high commitment, flexibility, and analytical thinking skills
- ‡ Relevant professional experience is an advantage

RESEARCH ASSISTANT (W/M/D) 70 % & PhD Position

What we offer:

- Exciting research projects for doctoral studies
- Intensive exchange with supervising professors and postdocs
- Integration of science and practice
- International orientation with support for visiting conferences
- Excellent career prospects
- “WE instead of me” culture
- Flexible working and part-time models
- An above-average number of vacation days
- Free parking and optional RMV student ticket (after admission to the doctoral studies)
- Optional individual coaching for students provided by high-profile executives

Your doctorate should extend the topics that are studied in depth at the chair. The two central topics concern the management of strategic alliances, networks and ecosystems and the management and control of people and teams in new forms of work.

We explicitly emphasize that all people – regardless of gender, nationality, ethnic and social origin, religion/belief, disability, age as well as sexual orientation – are equally welcome here.

You will have the opportunity to complete your doctorate at an excellent private business university within the framework of a structured doctoral program, in intensive exchange with your supervising professor, as well as to present your research results at international conferences and publish them in research and practice-oriented journals.

Your professional questions will be answered by Prof. Dr. Markus Kreutzer, e-mail: markus.kreutzer@ebs.edu

Become part of our team and apply ONLINE, indicating the earliest possible availability (reference number 7649).
