:: CALL FOR APPLICATIONS ::

SCHÖLLER FELLOWSHIPS 2017

The Dr. Theo and Friedl Schöller Research Center for Business and Society at the Friedrich-Alexander University (FAU) Erlangen-Nuremberg aims at contributing to responsible leadership in business and society. The key purpose of the Research Center is to foster current thinking within an international context in the field of “Creating Cohesion - Designing Change - Realizing Innovation” – a top-level research focus of FAU. Each year, the Center grants research fellowships at the School of Business and Economics in Nuremberg for outstanding scholars in the field.

In 2017, the Dr. Theo and Friedl Schöller Research Center for Business and Society will appoint the eighth cohort of Schöller Fellows. Application for fellowships is now open in the following two categories:

- (1) Schöller Senior Fellows for internationally renowned scholars and
- (2) Schöller Fellows for promising early career scholars
(including post-doctoral researchers and outstanding Ph.D. students).

The Dr. Theo and Friedl Schöller Research Center for Business and Society provides funds of up to 50,000 EUR per Senior Fellow and up to 20,000 EUR per Fellow for the realization of their proposed research project. Fellows are expected to contribute with their competence and experience to the research activities at the School of Business and Economics in Nuremberg.

The application form as well as further information on the application process and the fellowships (selection criteria, rights and obligations, etc.) is available on the website of the Research Center (under “Announcement”): www.schoeller-research.org.

Application deadline is December 31, 2016.
